5. Age Category: You must clearly state your age, (this is required for the Wash. State Ag Department premium $ reconciliation).
6. Exhibitor Number: This number will be assigned at the time of entry at the Fair Office. This number is used to identify your exhibit(s) and track your Ribbon & Point Awards. You may enter other items later by using the same exhibitor's number (4H just adds an H in front of same number and FFA adds an F in front of #).
7. Open and Junior Division - The Premium Book Is Divided Into 2 Separate Books, Open and Junior Divisions - Junior Division is for 4-H & FFA exhibits only, (not age groups). Open Division is for all other exhibits. Be sure to find your entry subject in either Open or Junior and then enter the subject Division Letter.
8. Division - Your Division can be found in the Premium Book under the subject you are entering. List the Division Letter (such as Division W - Food Preservation) on your entry form.
9. Class - These are subjects that are grouped together because of certain likeness. Under your subject Division you then need to find the class number your subject is to be entered under. Enter the number on your form. Example: I am entering Jelly, so I look under Food Preservation, which is Division W - and I find Jelly under Class 3 Jellies. So my Division is W and my Class is 3.
10. Lot - This is a group of specific subjects that are all the same. Example: My jelly is apple jelly. After finding my Division under W Food Preservation and my class under Jellies, I now look for the exact item I am entering. I found under Class 3 Jellies, Lot 1177 for Apple jelly. So my Division is W and my class is 3 and my lot is 1177.
11. Description of Article - Describe the article you are entering by using the same wording for the Lot # you choose in the premium book. Example: Division W – Class 3 - Lot 1177 – Description is Apple Jelly.
